

THE 2020 ALBERT C. MUSE PRIZE IN OPHTHALMOLOGY

Awarded by the Eye & Ear Foundation at the University of Pittsburgh

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

We seek nominations for individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to the field of Ophthalmology.

The Albert C. Muse Prize was established in 2001 by the Ear & Ear Foundation of Pittsburgh to honor world leaders in the fields of ophthalmology and otolaryngology. The Eye & Ear Foundation's mission is to support the Departments of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine.

The Muse Prize alternates annually between Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology carries a cash award of $5,000, and recognizes individuals who have made significant, progressive contributions to science and medicine in these specialties.

Presentation of the award will take place in the Fall of 2020. The prize is named for Albert C. Muse, who has served the Eye & Ear Institute and Foundation for five decades and has generously supported research for treatment of diseases affecting the eye, ear, nose, throat, head and neck. In past years, Mr. Muse has served as both the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Foundation.

ELIGIBILITY:

Nominations for the 2020 Albert C. Muse Prize in Ophthalmology is open to all individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to ophthalmology.

There is no geographical restriction on candidates. Each nomination will be reviewed by a select panel of judges including ophthalmologists from the UPMC Department of Ophthalmology, a national leader in ophthalmology research and clinical innovation.
